GREETINGS AND WELCOME!

Welcome to our home, Santa Clara de Asis Catholic Church! May the peace and love of Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with you!

We invite you to enter fully into the life of our parish community sharing our worship and love of Jesus Christ. Within this Bulletin is news of upcoming events, activities and opportunities which may be of interest to you.

Contact information is likewise provided for all of our groups, organizations, outreaches and ministries. Feel free to speak directly with these individuals for more information.

Fr. Fred K. Bailey and the Santa Clara de Asis Pastoral Team

Dear Friends:

In order to savor one night we labored for days...but it was worth it! Thanks to all who participated in the work, set-up, take-down and by attending our Autumn Parish Party...eventually everything will get put away in its proper places... but until then, I hope you have heard some great stories of how the evening unfolded. Suffice it to say that there was plenty of food, lots of beverages...inclusive of water, soda and Pellegrino...as well as wine and beer...and music was everywhere! (And my apologies...I/we completely forgot to put out the Haggen Das ice cream bars for dessert at the end of the evening! Dang...whatever will we do with them???!!!!!) My appreciation goes out to our friends at JT Schmid's for their generous willingness to provide such great food at a discounted rate...if you find yourself considering a place to head for lunch or dinner, might I suggest one of the two JT Schmid's locations (at the Tustin District and near Anaheim Stadium)...and let the manager know you are from Santa Clara and heard about them because of the Savor the Night event!

While much of our media has been engrossed with debates, candidate's poll standings, flooded highways and water conservation, the Synod on the Family has been proceeding in Rome...to some people's delight and to other folks' consternation. With over 270 (plus or minus one or two depending on the day of the week) Bishops and Cardinals from the entire world participating, OUR Catholic Church is opening windows of debate to allow the many different voices from around the world to share their concerns regarding what constitutes a family, how we as a church can support/accompany people in their desire to build familial relationships, how we can pastorally/mercifully invite back to the Eucharistic table those whose marriages have fractured and overall invite all sorts of people back to sacramental nourishment so they can build their own lives of grace more easily. Pope Francis, again to the delight of many and to the consternation of some, has encouraged the Bishops and Cardinals to speak from their hearts...and amazingly it appears that many, many of the world's Bishops/Cardinals have awareness' of the world that are not that different from many of our own...but up to now, they were not able to speak them aloud.

During these last few weeks, it was like the German Bishops had read my recent Bulletin letter regarding 'mercy'... imagine my surprise when I read that German Cardinal Reinhard Marx had spoken to his fellow bishops from around the world, urging: "we should seriously consider the possibility – based on each individual case and not in a generalizing way – to admit civilly divorced and remarried believers to the sacrament of Penance and Holy Communion." This should be permitted, he continued, "when the shared life in the canonically valid marriage definitively has failed and the marriage cannot be annulled, the liabilities from this marriage have been resolved, the fault for breaking up the marital life-bond was regretted and the sincere will exists to live the second civil marriage in faith and to educate children in the Faith." Many, especially the people of Chicago, are taking notice these days following the interview given by Chicago Archbishop, Blase Cupich, in which he told reporters in Rome he favors pathways to offer Holy Communion to divorced and remarried Catholics. He said the church must respect the decisions those Catholics make about their spiritual lives and he believes the same is true for gay Catholics in relationships. "I think we have to make sure that we don't pigeonhole one group as though they're not part of the human family, so there's a different set of rules for them," Cupich said during the roundtable news briefing Friday. "That would be, I think, a big mistake."

The Synod is wrapping up its deliberations in these final October days...and then the Holy Father is responsible for synthesizing all that has transpired into possibly definitive and impactful directions/actions/invitations. Over the years, in conversations with individuals about how the Catholic Church operates, I have often used the image of us being (at our BEST) a BIG Mediterranean/Latin-Type Family. Boisterous, loud, not always all in agreement about everything...but when any of our FAMILY wants to come home for a family meal...they are always welcome. Eating at the table does not mean everyone condones or agrees with everybody else...but it does mean that FAMILY is cherished and honored over and above disagreements, disputes and wounds. In order to be whole and well, people need to eat good food, talk, challenge each other, exchange ideas...and ideally this happens best within family. What our Church is perhaps awakening to is the vast diversity of what FAMILY can actually resemble...but nonetheless in which love, faith and grace can dwell.

Once the Roman conversations have concluded there will be some collective holding of breath...some waiting for an invitation to come HOME for supper...and some hoping the world remains what, in their estimation, it has always been. With the transparency and open dialogue encouraged by Pope Francis, whether anything changes or remains the same, at least we now know the successors to the Apostles are just as contentious and have just as much diversity as the originals of 2000+ years ago. It is comforting to remember that somehow the Holy Spirit worked pretty well in their lives back then and seems to be doing the same now, to continually give birth to the Church.

Just a reminder, next week we start commemorating our deceased loved ones during the November-All Souls Masses... envelopes are at the entrances for your use if you wish to enroll your own family or friends who have died.

As the Church is continually born afresh within your life, please know that you are in my heart.

Love, FKB

OCTOBER 24TH-25TH, 2015
THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jeremiah 31:7-9

Hebrews 5:1-6

Mark 10:46-52

Fickle, fickle, fickle. First they tell the blind man to shut up....then they encourage him to 'take courage and get up!' With only a handful of weeks remaining in this liturgical year, our weekend's Gospel selection from Mark is a canny reflection of what's been transpiring at the multi-week Synod occurring in Rome for the past several weeks. Intended to be both an affirmation for those whose familial relationships are functioning well and pastorally respond to those whose family situations are fractured or wounded, the Synod is the start of a global discourse on insuring that the Catholic Church is a clear and loud voice saying: 'Stand up, come to Jesus' and not a cruel institution concerned only with gilding the word NO while telling people to shut up. As the liturgical years starts to close in the shadow of a VERY lively Synod, which voice from today's Scripture has reigned within our hearts? Have the actions of our life become a voice telling the broken to shut up or have we, through our actions (which always speak louder than words) become a voice of hope and healing, inviting the broken to come to Jesus? In this same vein, with the knowledge that Jesus is present to us each day, have we considered our response if he were to ask, 'What do you want me to do for you?' For what would we ask? Take note, the SIGHT which the blind man received allowed him not only to function as a SEEING person...but with the inner sight by which he could SEE and start to follow Jesus. Will the things we seek from God help us....and others...to see and more clearly and follow Jesus ... or have we become blind to the purposes of God's gifts to us?

DEAR COMMUNITY OF SANTA CLARA DE ASIS CATHOLIC CHURCH, HELLO FROM ROME!

As the 3-month anniversary of my ordination to the Diaconate approaches, I look back at these first days of being an ordained minister with gratitude to God Who called me to the sacred order of Deacons through our beloved Bishop Vann's imposition of hands and Who has always provided guidance and Confirmations through the presence and support of many people, particularly during my internship at Santa Clara and when I came back to the community on July 11 as a newly ordained Deacon. It was definitely an evening to be remembered, what a well planned and carefully orchestrated event! The music was the best, as it has always been. The church was filled with so many familiar, loving faces. The Hospitality ladies, led by Maria MacFarland, were so gracious in Preparing and making sure that the after-Mass reception was well supplied with Food and drinks. Who else am I forgetting? Ah... Fr. Fred! Thank you so much, Fr. Fred, for your care and support (and patience too I think) during my Pastoral Year and for the evening. It would not have happened if you hadn't planned it. Last but not least were those who were present and gifted me with their wishes, prayers, and gifts (which I received at my Ordination as well as at the reception). Please know that you are remembered in my prayers and thoughts; I hope it will not be an imposition to ask that you please continue to pray for me too.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dcn. Nicolaus Thai

NATIONAL NEEDS COLLECTION

The annual National Needs Collection will be taken up in the Diocese of Orange on the weekend of November 21-22, 2015. This collection combines three national collections into one:

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development was mandated by the U.S. bishops to address the root causes of poverty in America through promotion and support of community-controlled, self-help organizations and transformative education. 25% of this collection stays in our diocese for local distribution and national grants were received last year by Birth Choice and our local Diocesan Restorative Justice ministries! There is a comprehensive application process in place and no organization/group receives funds locally or nationally that takes positions contrary to Catholic teaching or participates in partisan political activity.

Catholic Communication Campaign

The essential mission of the CCC is to contribute to the process of evangelization by fostering activities in relation to television, radio and other media, and through special projects of the Catholic press. An annual collection is taken up in the dioceses, which remit 50% of the funds collected to the National Office. From these funds, grants are made following recommendations by the USCCB Communication Committee. The remaining portion of the collection is retained by the dioceses for use in local communication projects.

Catholic University of America

This collection provides funding for academic scholarships at The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC in response to the commitment made by the bishops at its foundation in 1887. Catholic University is the only United States University with Pontifical faculties. Students are enrolled from all 50 states and almost 100 countries in 12 schools: Theology and Religious Studies, Philosophy, Law, Arts and Sciences, Social Service, Nursing, Engineering, Music, Architecture, Library and Information Sciences, Canon Law and Metropolitan College.

SANTA CLARA DE ASIS BLOOD DRIVE

With our Fall Blood Drive fast approaching we will be signing-up donors after each Mass this weekend. We have a goal of 70 appointments. Please look at your schedules and sign-up for one of our Wednesday, November 4th appointments. If you would prefer you can sign-up through email. Simply send a note to prodpat@att.net, Include your name, your email address, a number where you can be reached, and the time you would like to donate, between 2:00 pm and 8:00 pm. The early always go fast. We will schedule you as close to your request as possible and send you an email confirming your time.

The American Red Cross in California is always in need of blood donation. With all of the flooding in many parts of the Country numerous Blood Drives were cancelled. Do what you can to make our Blood Drive a huge success. Sign-up today and give "the gift of life."

Thank You from the Knights of Columbus

SANTA CLARA RESPECT LIFE OPPORTUNITIES

Each week in October we will feature an organization that you can contact to send them financial support or join in their events.

Mary's Shelter: PO Box 10433, Santa Ana, CA 92711 : We are here to serve teens in need of a loving and nurturing environment during their time of pregnancy and beyond. We welcome your inquiry, whether you need help or want to help, and would be pleased to schedule a convenient time to visit our homes. Believing that every life is a gift from God, Mary's Shelter empowers and equips vulnerable teen mothers and their babies for lives of hope, dignity and self-sufficiency. Mary's Shelter respects individuals at all stages of life and fosters loving, family-centered and faith-based values. Believing in new beginnings, we inspire and affirm residents' chastity, not premarital sex and contraception. Believing in the sacredness of life, we support adoption, not abortion. Mary's Shelter strives to break the negative cycle associated with teen pregnancy: abortion, high-risk births with premature and low birth-weight babies, interrupted education, repeat teen pregnancy, poverty, dependence on public assistance and child abuse and neglect in the next generation.

Second Harvest Food Bank: 8014 Marine Way Irvine, CA 92618
The Mission of Second Harvest Food Bank is to end hunger in Orange County. We solicit and coordinate donations, grants, fundraising, food drives, food rescue, harvesting and volunteers to supply food, education and advocacy for the hungry through non-profit partners and direct feeding programs. We constantly seek innovative cost effective ways to reach people. Since its founding, the Food Bank has provided more than 272 million pounds of donated and surplus food to local charities. The Food Bank partners with more than 340 member charities who feed the hungry in more than 470 locations throughout Orange County, including church pantries, shelters, senior centers, rehabilitation centers, and homes for abused women and children. Need food? Email us at agency@feedoc.org or call 949-653-2900. We will need your location in order to direct you to a nearby agency. More than 90 cents of every dollar is spent directly on our hunger relief programs.

Mercy House Living Centers: PO Box 1905, Santa Ana, CA 92702
Mercy House Living Center provides housing and comprehensive supportive services for a variety of homeless populations which includes families, adult men and women, mothers and their children, persons living with HIV/AIDS, individuals overcoming substance addictions, and some who are physically and mentally disabled. We strive to assist our residents in the areas of economic, emotional, and spiritual well-being in order to enhance self-esteem and a sense of personal pride. We value accountability, integrity, and self-sufficiency. The dignity of the individual person and the corresponding respect that follows is the guiding principle of our service to the homeless person.

Beta Foster Care: North Orange County Office - 860 E. La Habra Blvd., Suite 170 La Habra, CA 90631 Beta Foster Care (BFC) is a private non-profit foster family agency licensed by the State of California Department of Social Services Community Care Licensing. BFC trains and certifies qualified adults for foster care under state regulations and manages the appropriate placement of children into these foster homes. Then we provide continuing therapy for the children and on-going support for the foster parents. Administrators and social workers all hold a Master of Arts degree in social work or counseling. They must be either licensed as therapists or registered with the state and preparing for their license.
