- Yearly Confirmation Retreat

With a Purpose...

High School Youth Ministry events are age-appropriate youth nights designed to have a positive, interactive experience of our Parish and of our Catholic faith for our high school aged youth. Achieved through activities, fellowship, prayer, games, teachings and discussions, our leaders work hard to provide a fun, safe environment where our teens can thrive!

Registration Information

When does Registration begin for 2019-2020?

Registration for High School Youth Ministry in which the teen desires Confirmation Preparation begins on July 1 and closes on July 31st.

What if my teen is returning to High School Youth Ministry at Santa Clara?

All re-registration information has been mailed home to families who are already registered in HSYM. One parent and the returning teen are required to attend an appointment at one of the three Open Houses this summer for year 2 of Sacramental preparation.

If your child was enrolled in Middle School Youth Ministry last year (as an 8th grader), information on how to register for high school will also be mailed home.

What will I need to register for High School?

Baptism and First Communion Certificates, completed registration packet and full registration fee.
