Dear Friends:

A new season, almost a fresh month; each week inexorably exhausts what began back on January 1st as a fresh vision held by many for the NEW year. In the proceeding weeks our individual lives have been lifted and celebrated or in some cases crushed and darkened. Seemingly ignorant of whatever totality will eventually define 2019, days dawn, nights fall and the year progresses toward another illusory 'fresh' beginning both on the FIRST weekend of Advent (November 30th-December 1st) and January 1, 2020. In these early Autumn days, even though we need not prepare for the deep cold of winter, it is good to take stock of how and what the year has been for each of us. How do we see the world in these closing days of 2019 as opposed to what we held in hope back in January? Who is NOW an essential part of our lives and who has begun to be consigned to the vagaries of memory? Whether it be Socrates who is credited with saying: 'An unexamined life is not worth living...' or Flannery O'Connor's 1952 publication of 'Wise Blood' in which she says: "Where you come from is gone, where you thought you were going to was never there, and where you are is no good unless you can get away from it. Where is there a place for you to be? No place... Nothing outside you can give you any place... In yourself right now is all the place you’ve got." The endings and beginnings of months make me wistful; I need a warm fire and a hot mug of hot cocoa...(no Labrador at my feet, thank you...too much entanglement)...and so we progress from last weekend into whatever the yet unlived days to come will bring.

Back in the beginning of September I enjoyed the opportunity to again accept questions from parishioners during all the Masses regarding whatever of importance was on your mind. An echo of what I had done in 2018 following the Summer of 'clergy sexual abuse' at the highest levels (Cardinals and Bishops), I have always believed that humble transparency at the top serves our community well, especially in the unplanned turbulence of unsettling news that can derail our peacefulness. Along these lines, elsewhere in this Bulletin, you will find Bishop Kevin's letter regarding a NEW program of compensation that will be available to any person who was EVER sexually abused as a minor by a Diocesan priest of the participating Dioceses of Orange, Los Angeles, Fresno, San Bernardino, San Diego and Sacramento. The shadow of the abuse crisis will forever be a stain on the 20th century experience of Catholic Faith but this newest endeavor is a 'good-faith' continuing effort to offer healing and outreach with the least amount of painful intrusion within the victim's lives. Called, 'The California Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests', more information about this outreach can be obtained by going to www.CaliforniaDiocesesICP.com. Overseen by Kenneth Feinberg and Camille Biros, (Mr. Feinberg handled the compensation distributions for 9-11 families as well as the families of the Newtown, Ct. School shooting) and independent from each participating Diocese, in addition to Mr. Feinberg and Ms. Biros, this program's oversight will also be administered by former Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta, former California Governor Gray Davis and the former Secretary of Business-Transportation and Housing in California, Ms. Maria Contreras-Sweet. In pursuing this outreach, personally, I am proud of Bishop Kevin for refusing to sweep this scandal under the rug but rather, in as 'non-judgmental' of a manner as possible, to continue to assist victims and their families in their efforts to heal while 'recovering their dignity and peace'. I encourage you to go to the website mentioned above for complete information and please feel free to distribute this information to as many of your friends and families as possible. THANKS!!

This Tuesday evening at 6:30pm, the HOMELESSNESS 101 Workshop will occur here in our Hall. I have heard that some have reservations regarding the UNITED WAY taking the lead in this endeavor; apparently some have expressed concerns on the funding/compensation equations by which the United Way calculates its compensation? I don't have any background information or verification on that issue but I do know that AT LEAST THE UNITED WAY IS DOING SOMETHING by which assorted organizations can participate in addressing homelessness. In my mind that sure beats sitting around and doing nothing! Absent some sort of draconian legislative endeavor that would strip homeless individuals of their freedoms to move about as they wish, the United Way endeavor is a useful START in educating people about the issues and helping/inviting us to participate in whatever efforts local city governments are initiating. I invite and encourage you to come and give the United Way a hearing...and feel free to grill them on your concerns, whatever they may be.

In last weekend's Bulletin Letter I emphasized the approach of THANKSGIVING and the necessity of those who want their Thanksgiving Day experiences to be enriched by the addition of 'adopted' Marines from Camp Pendleton to start NOW to make contact with the Camp Pendleton YMCA so as to find out this year's protocol and get on their LIST. Having 'adopted' assorted groups of Marines for many years, I can personally testify to how humbling and endearing it is to host some other family's son or daughter for the holiday...AND...a great way to personally learn about different traditions and ways of life from these young men and women who are serving in the Armed Forces. If this interests you, please call the Camp Pendleton Armed Services YMCA at 760-385-4921. Thanks for your attention, I wish you well throughout these opening days of October and please remember, Winter, Spring, Summer or FALL, you are loved. FKB
No matter where people live, there are dangers associated with those locations. The Southern and Gulf States can be afflicted by hurricanes, the Midwest have tornadoes, the Northeast has blizzards and of course we here in the West have our earthquakes and wildfires. Each POTENTIAL danger has its own set of risks and requires its own particular set of ADVANCE precautions/preparations. With the Liturgical Calendar Clock continuing to tick downward (only eight weeks remaining of this Liturgical Year), the Gospel portrays Jesus as AGAIN exhorting the crowds to listen to his words and ACT UPON THEM IMMEDIATELY...before it is too late. When the wildfires of Autumn start to strike assorted areas of California, it is too late to purchase fire insurance...in the same way, when the tornado sirens sound, it is too late to start digging a basement. When is the RIGHT TIME to develop a strong relationship with Jesus? Uhhhh...that would be now...because if you wait until the first signs of a heart attack, stroke, a pink slip or a son/daughter's car accident...what makes you think you will even know HOW to talk to Jesus, much less understand his responses? Tried and true relationships take time and are built over years...and another year of opportunity is almost come and gone. So, how many more years have you got? How do you know? Are you sure?

Thank you for helping to bring September to an autumn close by sharing our worship here at Santa Clara. Please note that this Tuesday, October 1st at 6:30pm is our HOMELESSNESS 101 Workshop to help provide basic information about the scourge of homelessness and what our local agencies and governments are trying to do to counter it. ALL are invited and welcome. Please take a Bulletin with you for other news of what’s coming up in the approaching month of October and please remember.....months come and months go... but you are loved no matter what! FKB
September 13, 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

In May, together with the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the Dioceses of Fresno, San Bernardino, San Diego and Sacramento, the Diocese of Orange announced a new compensation program that will be available to any person who was sexually abused as a minor by diocesan priests of the participating dioceses, no matter when that abuse might have occurred. While new cases of sexual misconduct by priests involving minors are rare today in the Catholic Church in California, the Bishops undertake this program as another step in their continued efforts to provide avenues for victim-survivors of abuse to receive assistance for continued healing.

Effective September 16, 2019, the California Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests (ICP) will begin to accept registrations from victims at its website: www.CaliforniaDiocesesICP.com. We urge you to learn more about this important program by going directly to this website.

The ICP is entirely independent from the Church. Kenneth Feinberg and Camille Biros, widely recognized as the premier dispute resolution administrators in the country, will administer the program. An independent oversight committee, consisting of former U.S. Secretary of Defense Leon Panetta, Gov. Gray Davis (ret.), and Hon. Maria Contreras-Sweet (former Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing in California, and former Administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration) will oversee the administration of the ICP.

The new independent program is an important initiative in the California bishops’ continuing commitment to provide pastoral care and financial support to victim-survivors of sexual abuse of minors by priests. In the past two decades, Catholic dioceses in California have worked to provide assistance to abuse victim-survivors, offering counseling and other support, to victim-survivors in an effort to acknowledge responsibility for the grave offenses committed by priests and to compensate victims for their pain and suffering which often dates back several decades.

Catholic dioceses have also put in place strict policies and programs to protect people and to create safe environments in parishes, schools and other ministries. Hundreds of thousands of adults throughout the state have been trained in abuse prevention and reporting. Hundreds of thousands more in leadership positions have been fingerprinted and undergone background checks. Dioceses have implemented strict reporting requirements, working closely with local law enforcement officials to immediately report abuse allegations and remove accused perpetrators from ministry. The Diocese of Orange was one of the first Dioceses to put all of these in place.

The damage done to innocent young people and their families by sexual abuse in the past is profound. It cannot be erased by apologies, no matter how sincere. Money cannot buy back a wounded person’s wholeness. But what compensation can do is acknowledge the evil that was done, and help survivors on their journey to recover their dignity and peace.

PARISH WEEKLY TITHE REPORT
THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE PARISH!
Homelessness has reached crisis levels both locally and nationally. Many factors, including misinformation and myths, contribute to this growing problem.

This Homelessness 101 class will provide information and answer some of the most frequently asked questions about this issue.

What is homelessness?
What causes people to become homeless?
What is the current state of homelessness in Orange County?
How can homelessness be solved?

By the end of this session, you will become familiar with many of the approaches, philosophies and terminologies associated with homelessness. More importantly, you will gain a much better understanding of the homeless system in our community, including the most up-to-date statistics and best practices for solving homelessness in Orange County for good.
